

Angie Vredeveld, PsyD

Licensed Clinical Psychologist, OH #6653
3352 Jefferson Avenue Cincinnati, OH 45220
513-370-7515 avredeveld03@gmail.com
www.immigrationpsychologyservices.com

EDUCATION

| | |
|---|------|
| PsyD, Clinical Psychology, Indiana State University | 2009 |
| MS, Clinical Psychology, Indiana State University | 2006 |
| BA, Philosophy, Miami University | 2002 |

EXPERIENCE

| | |
|--|--------------|
| Immigration Psychology Services, Founder, Cincinnati, OH | 2014-Present |
| Provide forensic psychological evaluations for immigrants and refugees, including extreme hardship, U visa, VAWA, asylum, and disability in naturalization exams. Design mental health programming for immigrant and refugee communities. Train US audiences in immigrant and refugee mental health. | |
| RISE, Director, Cincinnati, OH | 2014-Present |
| Direct the operations of RISE, a US-based nonprofit working to end acid violence internationally. | |
| Global Psychosocial Network, Clinical Psychologist, International | 2014-Present |
| Work with team of international psychologists delivering mental health services to humanitarian workers. | |
| Hope of Children and Women Victims of Violence, Consultant, Uganda | 2013-2014 |
| Developed a mental health program for a NGO serving refugees; trained staff in psychotherapy skills; led psychoeducational groups; provided individual counseling. | |
| Veterans Affairs Medical Center, Staff Psychologist, Cincinnati, OH | 2010-2013 |
| Performed compensation and pension evaluations of veterans with PTSD; produced written reports for legal raters; served as rotation supervisor to pre-doctoral psychology intern. | |
| Family Success Consortium, Clinical Psychologist, Cincinnati, OH | 2009-2011 |
| Provided individual and family therapy in a private practice setting; performed IQ, personality, and learning and cognitive disorder testing. | |
| Veterans Affairs Medical Center, Pre-doctoral Intern, Cincinnati, OH | 2008-2009 |
| Substance Dependence Rotation: led psychotherapy groups and provided individual counseling. Health Psychology Rotation: led pain rehabilitation and weight control groups; performed pre-surgical psychosocial evaluations. Religion/Spirituality Rotation: designed and taught spirituality classes for homeless veterans; led spirituality therapy group. | |

ADDITIONAL HUMANITARIAN EXPERIENCE

| | |
|--|--------------|
| Physicians for Human Rights Asylum Network, Clinical Psychologist, Cincinnati, OH | 2012-Present |
| Provide pro bono evaluations for refugees seeking asylum in the US. | |
| The Life You Can Save, Blog Contributor, International | 2014-2015 |

Wrote blog pieces on psychological factors involved in altruistic giving.

Crossroads Community Church, Clinical Psychologist, Cincinnati, OH 2009-2014
Provided online psychotherapy skills training to counselors at a sex trafficking aftercare center in India; provided mental health treatment in tent clinics in South Africa; prepared substance abuse treatment manual for South African counselors; designed a program addressing re-entry stress in US volunteers.

ReachOut HIV/AIDS, Clinical Psychologist, Uganda January 2013
Co-led HIV/AIDS counseling sessions; provided psychoeducation on PTSD in villages.

People to People Ambassador Program, Delegate, Rwanda November 2011
Participated in professional delegation studying PTSD in post-genocide Rwanda; presented on PTSD at Kigali Health Institute.

ADDITIONAL TEACHING & SUPERVISORY EXPERIENCE

Indiana State University Psychology Clinic, Supervisor, Terre Haute, IN 2007-2008
Provided supervision and case consultation to doctoral students in the Indiana State University Psychology Clinic; provided projective assessment (Rorschach Inkblot Test) feedback; provided group supervision to undergraduate students enrolled in professional development course.

Indiana State University, Instructor, Terre Haute, IN 2005-2006
Delivered course lectures to four sections of Introduction to Psychology; facilitated class discussions; administered and scored exams.

Miami University, Teaching Assistant, Oxford, OH 1999-2000
Prepared materials and facilitated discussions for a medical ethics course on death and dying.

Writing Center, Tutor, Miami University, Oxford, OH 1998-2000
Provided academic writing assistance to Miami University students; organized faculty meetings and student workshops related to academic and creative writing processes.

SELECTED PRESENTATIONS & PUBLICATIONS

Psychologists' Role in the Promotion of Human Rights, Veterans Affairs 2013 Medical Center, Cincinnati, OH

Psychology's Role in International Affairs, Indiana State University, Terre Haute, IN 2012

Psychology's Role in Responding to the Rwandan Genocide, Veterans Affairs Medical Center, Cincinnati, OH 2012

Mass Trauma Treatment: Moving Toward Post Traumatic Growth, Kigali Health Institute, Kigali, Rwanda 2011

Bennett, P., Vredevelde, A., Johnson, T., Aten, J., & Madson, M. (2008). Religious and Secular Coping in Survivors of Hurricane Katrina. Poster presented at the annual midyear meeting of APA Division 36 - The Psychology of Religion, Columbia, Maryland.

SPECIALIZED TRAINING

Psychological Assessment of Undocumented Immigrants, APA Continuing Education Workshop
Psychologists' Involvement in US Immigration Court, APA Convention
Aiding in Physical and Psychological Documentation of Trauma, Physicians for Human Rights
Evaluations of Children and Adolescents Seeking Humanitarian Protection, Physicians for Human Rights
An Emerging Role for a Psychologist in the Field of Immigration, APA Division 52
Psychological First Aid, American Red Cross
Foundations of Disaster Mental Health, American Red Cross
International Humanitarian Law, American Red Cross

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

American Psychological Association Division of International Psychology (APA Div. 52)
Psychologists for Social Responsibility (PsySR)
Physicians for Human Rights Asylum Network